Agenda Items: Inspiration Stations and Book Corners

Point Number	Item	Opinion	Action
1	Why do we have inspiration stations in our classrooms?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A place that is quiet so children can concentrate • A place to write when children need to be inspired • A place to showcase best work • A place where children can go if they are struggling for ideas/struggling to focus
2	What are the features of a brilliant reading corner/inspiration station?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inviting decorations that make children want to enter • Cushions • A range of writing tools • A variety of paper • A theme that is linked to the topic • Lights • Vocabulary/word mats • Dictionaries/thesauruses • Two chairs so that two children can work together • Examples of children's writing • A range of objects linked to the theme • Tidy and well-organised 	School councillors to feed back to class before the inspiration station deadline. (Friday 6th October) School council to visit classrooms on Wednesday 11th October to judge the best inspiration station/book corner.
3	How could we promote the use of book corners/inspiration stations?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It could be used as a reward for the best writer of the week • Children who have earned a certain amount of dojo points could use the inspiration station • Each class could have a rota so that each child gets an opportunity to experience the inspiration station
