Agenda Items: Sports Day and Keeping Healthy Week

Point Number	Item	Opinion	Action
1	What do you enjoy most/least about Keeping Healthy Week?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Children in the school liked it when we did the 'daily mile'</li> <li>Children don't like creating a healthy balanced meal every year. They would like other activities planned.</li> <li>Children enjoyed having a non-uniform day where they could dress up as their favourite sportsperson.</li> <li>Children enjoy taking part in workshops that involve sports they haven't tried before. They would like to do fencing, archery, golf and tennis.</li> </ul>	Miss Carr to feedback to Miss Qawatin and Mr Mulvaney
2	What do you enjoy most/least about Sports Day?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Children said they didn't enjoy that sports day only lasts the morning. Children would like to do sports activities all day</li> <li>Children said they loved the teacher races and the parent races, but would like more opportunities to race against children from other classes. (possible relay?)</li> </ul>	Miss Carr to feedback to Miss Qawatin and Mr Mulvaney
3	How could we improve Keeping Healthy Week/Sports Day?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Having a famous sportsperson come to school</li> <li>More opportunities to cook healthy dishes</li> <li>A healthy enterprise fair where classes create a healthy snack to sell. Money raised could go to the school council's charity.</li> <li>If activities/races are based on points, the class with the most points could get a trophy to keep until the following year.</li> <li>Each class could focus on a famous sportsperson and create a piece of work at the end of the week.</li> </ul>	Miss Carr to feedback to Miss Qawatin and Mr Mulvaney

3	What sports would you like to see at our cross-site competitions this year?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children think cricket takes too long and not many children get more than 1 go.</li> <li>• School council decided that games would be better (football/basketball/netball)</li> <li>• Sports such as volleyball are difficult for children to learn and then play well.</li> </ul>	Miss Carr to feedback to Miss Qawatin and Mr Mulvaney
